The impact of study abroad.

Studying abroad teaches students first hand about people, cultures and countries. Junior Tracy Nyhus, a pre-dentistry major, studied abroad in Kenya, Africa, where she interned in a dental office. “I have seen such happiness in people who live every day happy to just be alive,” recalls Nyhus. “My study abroad experience helped me realize the power we have to make a difference.”